

Lesson 10

God's guidance for Issac's marriage

Bible Portion:

Genesis Chapter 24

Memory Verse:

Romans 8:14

because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

Objective:

Children understand that God leads His children wonderfully in everything and that, prayer and trust in God will bring blessings.

Introduction-Abraham entrusted the matter to his faithful servant-The Journey of Eliazer-Eliazer in Mesopotamia-God's plan-Eliazer in Rebekah's house-Rebekah goes with Eliazer to the house of Issac-Issac receives Rebekah and takes her home.

Questions:

1. Mark Mamre and Haran Mesopotamia and the route Eliazer might have taken on a map and write the journey of Eliazer.
2. Draw and colour a picture of Rebekah drawing water.
3. Let the children write down the things that Eliazer did for Issac's marriage, one by one.
4. What were the good qualities of Rebekah?
5. What should we do for God's guidance?
6. Draw and colour the tent of Issac and write below 'Issac's tent'.
7. Will you pray and wait for God's guidance whenever you have to do something?